

The Lullaby Trust Annual Grantholders Meeting

Thursday 14 September 2017

Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health, London

TIME	SESSION	PRESENTER
12.15	Lunch and registration
13.00	Welcome and opening remarks	Prof Helen Ball Chair, The Lullaby Trust Scientific Committee
13.10	The feasibility of a new approach for improving infant sleep-sharing safety: Final report on Let's Talk About Sleep! in NHS Sunderland and NHS Fife	Prof Helen Ball
13.45	Oto Acoustic Signals Investigation Study update The limitations of post-hoc recruitment to research studies: the potential value of establishing disease registers for future research	Prof Peter Fleming Consultant Paediatrician, University Hospitals Bristol
14.20	Sudden unexpected death in childhood (SUDC): characteristics, autopsy findings and investigation	Dr Victoria Bryant Clinical Research Associate, UCL Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health
14.55	Coffee break
15.10	The prevalence of Long QT Syndrome gene variants in SIDS	Dr Robert Coombs Consultant Neonatologist (retired), Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
15:45	New research projects for 2017 and closing remarks - Investigating the microbiome of sudden unexpected deaths in infancy and childhood - Cessation in pregnancy incentives trial (CPIT)	Prof Helen Ball Prof Neil Sebire Professor of Paediatric Pathology, Great Ormond St Hospital Prof David Tappin Professor of Clinical Trials for Children, Glasgow University
16.30	Meeting close	Prof Helen Ball